

Ringdolma Tamang "The found happiness"

I was born on 26th September 1991, in a village of Sindhupalchowk district, Tatopani, near China's Boarder where my mother with 3 sisters and a brother lives. Though I don't remember how my father was, he may be proud of me for what I am doing today. I was the fifth child in kinder house. I was so shy that I never liked being snapped. Mommy (Laxmi Tamang), Buwa (Bhim Bahadur Tamang) and even Lydia mama have grasped me tightly from back while talking a group photos. Today when I think of Kinderhouse I feel as proud of myself as it has done and taught me so much selflessly. Today I and other children are doing better because of all those knowledge and support that we received during our stay in Kinderhouse. Heartily, thanks to all those who made this journey of our life possible. The support, love, attention and the hope that we received from all the sponsors and the well-wishers are the reason we are here today living independently and happily life.

In the present day, I have working in one of the reputed audio- visual production company, named as Adventure Nepal Production Pvt. Ltd. as an office manager and also as cinematographer on some projects according to the nature of the projects. But I even edit videos, does script translation and also train children during workshops, whatever I have learned since 5 years' experience in this work. Sometimes, I wonder a girl who was too shy to be photographed is now confidently holding a camera.

Everyone in my work place is like a family member to me as my senior brothers and sisters provide guidance and share their knowledge in what they are expertise in.

Apart from my work, although my Bachelor in Business studies wasn't as appreciative as it had to be, so recently I joined Bachelor in Fine Arts (Painting), in Sirjana College of Fine Art, where I have been learning all about arts. As art is closely related with my job. After learning this I can be an artist of my own world also work as the studio based art director, Sketch Art director, Interior designers, School Art teacher and also as Illustrator. Among all these I can focus in one possibility which I liked to prefer the most.

With the course of time, I am learning to live a life full of significance. "Who you are and what you ought to do?" are the questions which always strikes my mind and neither it has let me in an immoral path nor does it let me be hopeless. Listening to my heart carefully, following it and never giving up is what I always follow in my life.

Thank you all for having such a golden heart in supporting all of us.

Love you all,

Ringdolma Tamang
